

The Parish of Bracknell: Holy Trinity with Mosaic

Called together to make Christ known

Bulletin

11th October 2026 19th Sunday after Trinity

In this week's Gospel reading, Matthew 22:1–14, Jesus tells the parable of a king who prepares a wedding banquet and invites his guests. Yet many of those invited refuse to come. The invitation is then extended much more widely, and people from all walks of life are welcomed to the feast.

The parable reminds us that God's invitation is generous and open. He calls us into a relationship with him and invites us to share in the life, joy and hope he offers. But an invitation requires a response. We can accept it, ignore it, or allow other things to become more important.

So, what might this mean for us this week? Perhaps we could ask ourselves where God is inviting us to respond. Is there someone we need to forgive, encourage, or reach out to? Is there an opportunity to serve that we have been putting off? Or perhaps we simply need to make more time for God in the midst of our busy lives.

The practical challenge is simple: notice God's invitations this week—and say yes to one of them.

In the week beginning 11th October we pray for:

Our Children and Young People

We pray for our Youth Group, Sparklers and Children's Church at Holy Trinity. We give thanks for the health, wellbeing and joy of our children and young people. We pray especially for children who are less fortunate; for those who experience abuse, neglect, or poverty; and for those whose circumstances are difficult. May they be protected, supported, and surrounded by people who care for them.

Médecins Sans Frontières (MSF)

We bring before God the work of the staff and volunteers of Médecins Sans Frontières. We especially pray for the MSF teams responding to the devastating earthquakes that struck Venezuela on 24th June. Their teams are providing basic healthcare, mental health support, health promotion, and water and sanitation services through mobile clinics in affected communities. MSF has also provided approximately 8.5 tonnes of emergency medical supplies. We pray for all those affected by this disaster and for those working to bring healing and practical support.

Older People

We pray for our local care homes, especially Bickerton House and Clement House. We pray for all the residents, their families, and visitors, and for the staff who care for them. May those who are lonely or vulnerable know God's presence, comfort, and love.

A Payer for Our Vacancy

Heavenly Father,

we thank you for your faithfulness to Bracknell Parish and for all who serve you at Holy Trinity and at Mosaic.

During this time of vacancy, guide us by your Holy Spirit. Strengthen us in worship and fellowship and help us to trust in your good purposes for our parish.

Grant wisdom and discernment to all who are involved in seeking a new priest. Prepare the person whom you are calling to serve among us, and prepare us to welcome them with generosity, faith, and love.

Help us, in this time of waiting, to continue to grow together in faith and to make Christ known through our words and actions.

Persecuted Christians

We pray for Amina and Shamila, two teenage sisters from Kibenge in Kasese District, Uganda, who escaped from their burning home on 6th September after it was allegedly set alight while they were sleeping. Reports say that the incident followed their conversion from Islam to Christianity.

We pray for their physical and emotional recovery and for their safety and protection. We pray that they will be surrounded by people who will support and care for them, and that they may know God's presence, peace, and strength in the days ahead. We also pray for all Christians around the world who face persecution or hostility because of their faith.

We especially pray for:

Pippa Lloyd and family, Adelaide and Robert Bunker, Jeff Dennis, Ann Warren, Andrew Brown, Peter Hughes, Ray Hobbs, Jemma Evans, Carl Bennett & Jackie Pugh & Richard Curtis.

We remember:

All who have died recently and pray for their families and friends as they grieve. May they know God's comfort, peace, and loving presence.

At Year's Mind:

Mildred Carter, Laura Hall, Beverly Ann Bolton, Daisy Walden, and Margaret Watson.

Prisoner of Conscience

We continue to pray for Dr Fitsum-Berhan Gebrenegus, an Eritrean Orthodox priest and psychiatrist who was arrested in November 2004 because of his religious activities and leadership within the Mekane Hiwet Medhane-Alem Church.

He has reportedly been held incommunicado at the Wengel Mermera Central Criminal Investigation Interrogation Centre in Asmara for more than 20 years, without charge or trial. Before his detention, he served as a senior physician at St Mary's Psychiatric Hospital in Asmara.

We pray for Dr Gebrenegus and for all those who are imprisoned because of their faith or beliefs. We pray for their safety, strength, and perseverance, and for justice and freedom for those who have been detained without due process.
